

On A Cloudy Day
by David Mielcarek, Sep 28, 2014

*The clouds roll in,
as they often do.
Their dark spots forbidding,
their rain causing dew.*

*The size of their power,
often pushes me down.
Nature's grand furry,
changes smile to frown.*

*But!, I am a fighter,
and I will succeed.
I will build my own future,
growing flower from seed.*

*So bring it on nature,
bring your best.
For cloudy day or not,
I will pass your test!*
